

An angel of the Lord told Manoah and his wife that they would have a special son. He would be strong enough to save Israel from the Philistines, their enemies for 40 years.

The baby was named Samson. The angel told Manoah and his wife that they must never cut Samson's hair or he would lose his strength.

Samson fought the Philistines for many years. They wanted to know the secret of his strength. They asked a woman named Delilah to trick him into telling her. The Philistines promised her silver.

Delilah tried many ways to get Samson to tell her the secret of his strength. She tied him up with seven leather ties, but he broke loose. She tied him up with new ropes, and he escaped the Philistines. Finally, Samson told Delilah, "If my hair were cut, I would lose my strength and would become as weak as any other man."

The Philistines captured Samson. They cut his hair, blinded him, and put him in prison. Samson prayed to God to give him strength one more time. God did. Samson destroyed their temple. He died doing it.
