

Study Sheet for Geography Unit

Test Tuesday, November 2nd

1. We can use a map to find locations on earth.
2. Geography is the study of the earth's surface.
3. The key tells you what symbols on a map mean.
4. The title of a map tells you what the map is about.
5. Cardinal directions are north, south, east, and west
6. Map symbols are small pictures telling what you will find on a map.
7. We can help protect the earth's natural resources by reducing, reusing, and recycling.

Be able to label the directions on the compass rose:

Be able to label the following landforms:

mountain, island, hills, lake, pond, river, volcano, beach, valley, peninsula

Be able to label the 7 continents and 5 oceans

